

EMERGENCY MEETING OF THE GENOA TOWN BOARD MEMBERS

2/28/2018

An emergency meeting of the Town Board was called to order at 6:30 p.m. to discuss our next steps in continuing Code Enforcement duties in the unexpected death of Mick Piechuta. Board members present: Lorie Sellen-Gross, Al Armstrong, Brandon White and Don Slocum. Cheryl Shields was absent. Gary Mutchler, Scipio Town Supervisor was present as well. We met with a possible candidate, Steve VanOrman. The job description and requirements as posted by Civil Service were reviewed.

We also met with Patrick Doyle, the current Code Enforcement Officer for the Villages of Aurora and Moravia, and Towns of Owasco, Montezuma, and Locke.

The Board went into Executive Session after everyone left except the Board Members.
